Featured Program

CALL: Ethics in Journalism

The response to this series of talks on journalism that we started in November was tremendous. Many people asked for more speakers as the topic "Ethics in Journalism" continues to be relevant and timely with journalists being named Person of the Year by Time magazine. The New Year will bring many interesting twists in the news cycle for journalists, and this next speaker offers another perspective with his emphasis on social media. We hope you will find this talk in our series equally thought-provoking and stimulating. Pre-registration is requested. Sign up online, in person, or call 973-635-0603. For more information on the featured speaker, visit chathamlibrary.org/call.

BOOKFNDS JANUARY - FEBRUARY 2019

MATT ROONEY

Tuesday, January 22 – 7 pm

Fake News is Old News

Matt Rooney is an attorney and the founder of SaveJersey.com, the state's largest online conservative news source. A regular panelist for "Chasing News with Bill Spadea" on My9/Fox5/Fox29 and frequent guest on regional television and radio programs, Matt was recently named one of "The 100 Most Powerful People in NJ Politics" for 2018 by New Jersey Globe. In this interactive talk, Rooney will explore the controversial "fake news" phenomenon from the perspective of a social media commentator. Rooney's analysis will include an in-depth look at the establishment media's under-discussed role in bringing about the demise of its own credibility, the corresponding ascent of new media sources (like Save Jersey), and the rise of fake news amid the conflict.
