

Notice about Security Cameras and Photographs

Revised February 25, 2026

Public areas of the library building are monitored by surveillance cameras.

Photographs and/or videos taken in the library may be posted on the Internet and used in library publications or press releases.

By entering the library, you give consent to your image and that of any dependents to be used for any purpose related to the library. This might include (but is not limited to) the right to use them in the library's printed and online publicity, website, social media, and press releases. There will be no compensation or credit for appearing in the image and you waive your rights of publicity. All images remain owned by the library.

If you object to the above, please feel free to step out of photographs and inform the library in writing at librarian@chathamlibrary.org immediately.
